

Freiston Parish Council

NEWSLETTER

<https://freiston.parity.lincolnshire.gov.uk>

The first issue of this newsletter is all about Freiston and meeting your local Parish Councillors, who represent the village on your behalf.

The village of Freiston is situated in an extensive farming area, near the sea and about three and a half miles to the east of Boston. Freiston village also has four hamlets which are Freiston Shore, Scrane End, Haltoft End & Freiston Ings.

The first recorded Parish meeting was on the 4th December 1894 following the Local Government Act; with the first Parish Council meeting held on the 3rd January 1895.

Freiston Parish Council have a public forum at the beginning of each meeting, which the public are always welcome to attend. The dates of the meeting are on the noticeboard and you can also find more information on the website. You will also find further information about upcoming and past meetings. If you wish to find out more, please visit our website or scan the QR code above.

We always welcome your thoughts and opinions so if you have got an idea about what should go in future newsletters, we would love to hear from you. Please contact the clerk on freistonpc@gmail.com.

MEET THE FREISTON PARISH COUNCILLORS

Nigel Marshall

Nigel has lived in Freiston all his life and has been married for nearly 50 years. He has 4 children & 5 grandchildren and he is the current chairman of the parish council.

Bridgett Posey

Bridgett has been on the parish council for 30 years. Bridgett is passionate about the environment, recycling & preserving the planet for future generations.

Peter Bedford

Peter is a true Freistonian who was born in the house that he currently lives in with his wife. He has been on the parish council for 32 years, & he is also a borough councillor.

Judith Godwin

Judith has lived in Freiston for over 30 years. She volunteers at the Boston Woodland Trust, where she works to maintain the beautiful area. Judith also enjoys walking her dogs.

Roy Pearson

A retired farmer with 2 children, 4 grandchildren & 3 great – grandchildren, Roy has been on the parish council for 25 years.

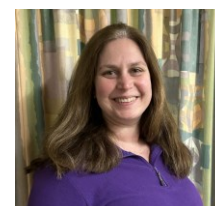

Shaun Pearson

Shaun lives in Freiston and works in Boston as a Bench Joiner. Shaun enjoys gardening and helping out around the village ensuring its upkeep.

Simon Pearson

Simon was brought up on the family farm at White Loaf Hall and is a professor at the University of Lincoln. He is interested in local heritage and is a local bell ringer.

Amy Marshall

Born & bred in Freiston and a local optician in Boston for 20 years, Amy has joined the parish council – keeping up the family tradition!

Amy Pearson

Freiston Parish Council say goodbye & good luck as Amy is off to pastures new.

Tony Wheeler

A new member of the council, Tony is a keen gardener and the former drummer of a local band.